

A man and a woman, both wearing straw hats and sunglasses, are smiling and looking at a large map they are holding together. The man is wearing a red and blue plaid shirt and has a camera hanging from his neck. The woman is wearing a white top. They are standing in front of a blurred background of a European city street with historic buildings.

Restaurant bills are required by law to include a service charge – it is customary to tip drinks and small meals by 5 - 10% of the total bill cost, and larger scale meals by 10 - 15%.

In taxis, there is no need to tip, but the tendency is to round the price up to the nearest Euro.

Shopping and Tax (VAT) refunds

Amsterdam is a luxury shopping capital and most retailers accept global card schemes.

For example, our Cash Passport™ is accepted in all locations where the MasterCard acceptance logo is shown. The top three places to shop in Amsterdam are:

- Amstelveen
- The Jordaan
- Pieter Cornelisz Hooftstraat & Van Baerlestraat

When you buy over €50 of goods from participating retailers, you can claim back your VAT (at 21%).

- Remember that the VAT refunds can only be claimed by non-residents of the EU departing the EU.
- VAT refunds are issued at the airport so we recommend allowing an extra hour for your return journey.
- Fill out all of the relevant forms correctly in advance.
